ARDIEL ACRES

356861 The Blue Mountains Euphrasia Townline, Clarksburg

The Ardiels have been growing apples in The Blue Mountains for over a century. Each generation has committed to growing new varieties and adopting new planting techniques with a goal of producing the elusive “perfect orchard”. Stop by and learn the newest methods at Ardiel Acres.

BLUE MOUNTAIN FRUIT COMPANY

067488 33rd Sideroad, Thornbury

The Blue Mountain Fruit Company has a state of the art, 64,000 square foot computerized packing plant to sort the best colour, taste, and eliminate defects. Take a tour of the facility and learn how modern technology delivers the finest apples across North America. Pre-registration is required.

DREAMFIELD HOLSTEINS

595224 4th Line, The Blue Mountains

Dreamfield Holsteins has been a family farm since 1963 and is now operated by the second and third generations. Over the years, there have been updates to the farm which milks around 48 cows, raising all replacements and growing all the feed for the herd.

KIMBER VALLEY FARMS

236087 Beaver Valley Road, Kimberley

Kimber Valley Farms are excited to welcome you to visit their flock of Icelandic Sheep. Their distinctive horns, long wool and wide variety of colours visually set them apart from other sheep breeds, and their beautiful fleece is prized by artists, spinners and knitters.

SPY CIDER & DISTILLERY

808108 24th Sideroad, The Blue Mountains

With 78 acres of old and new orchards and a small batch distillery onsite, Spy combines their passion for organic principles with a commitment to creating delicious ciders and quality spirits. Explore the orchard and learn about the state-of-the-art equipment!

NEED-TO-KNOWS

Open Fields is a free, self-guided tour across five different locations.

The event runs from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. – rain or shine!

Bring cash and a cooler. Some of the stops will have products and activities available for purchase.

No pets allowed. We love all of our furry friends, but for safety reasons we ask that you leave them at home.

Dress appropriately. Be prepared to get dirty and bring proper footwear for the farm!

Please respect signage and boundaries. These farms are working farms, and we ask that you stay within the marked areas.

Take only pictures. For your safety, and out of respect for the farmers, don't touch or take anything unless told.
